Past Hanukkah celebrations at the White House have been rich with symbolic history, and with your help, this year's celebration can be too.

Announcing Office Hours with President Obama's Senior Advisor Valerie Jarrett

President Obama's Senior Advisor Valerie Jarrett is answering your social media questions as part of a new series of Office Hours."

"The truth is, Flo says that day was the worst day of his life. And that is the stark reality behind these Medal of Honor ceremonies -- that for all the valor we celebrate, and all the courage that inspires us, these actions were demanded amid some of the most dreadful moments of war. That's precisely why we honor heroes like Flo -- because on his very worst day, he managed to summon his very best."

-- President Barack Obama
