President Obama Presents the Plan to Close Guantanamo: "This Is About Closing a Chapter in History"

This week, President Obama announced the plan to close the prison facility at Guantanamo Bay once and for all -- saying that keeping the prison open undermines our national security and stains our broader record on upholding the highest standards of rule of law.

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act is Paying Off

Seven years after bringing our economy back from the brink, the President will travel to Jacksonville, Florida to highlight the new course he charted for America.
